THE BUDGET DEBATE HAS STARTED

With all the earnestness of a regular parliament, the Students' Union attacked the question of this year's budget at the Union meeting at Convocation Hall on Tuesday. The debate was enlivened by disputes regarding parliamentary procedure, during which some of the members intimated that the council were trying to "railroad" the measure.

The budget was presented and a motion to consider it item by item was lost. Mr. Lang, treasurer of the Union, moved that the budget be accepted in toto. The debate as to whether it precluded further discussion was carried on by Mr. Clark, of the Hockey club, and Mr. Parker of the Soccer club. Finally the chairman ruled that the details of the budget could be discussed on Mr. Lang's motion, but that the budget must be rejected or accepted in toto.

Mr. Clark claimed that a university was known by the kind of athletics it displayed, and as hockey was the major winter sport, we could not expect good hockey unless the team was supported in money and at the games. Mr. Parker claimed that the Soccer Budget was an insult to previous football teams. The university had the inter-university championship and would be forced to turn down the challenge if they did not get more money. He said that the Soccer club's demand was almost a right. Mr. Parker also stated that the executive had cut down their budget at a meeting at which their association was not represented. Mr. McGillivray stated that they were informed of the meeting, and if they were not there, it was their own fault.

The debate was adjourned owing to time. It seems from the consensus of opinion that next Tuesday will not see the end of the fight and if there is any attempt to increase the budget of the hockey or football clubs at the expense of any of the other clubs, there will be a very bitter debate. Similarly, if these clubs do not get an additional grant, their supporters may defeat the budget.

DES MOINES CONFERENCE ELECTION CLOSE

Arts—Michener, Banks, Bainbridge, Patterson, Davidson, Miss McLennan, Miss Gardiner, Miss Simpson.

Science—McGillivray, Cleland.

Medicine—Jackson, Fife.

Agriculture—Love (accl.), Buckley (accl.).

Law—Cameron, Miss Steele (accl.).

Household Ec.—Miss Stewart.

Pharmacy—Hollingshead (accl.).

That was the result of the Des Moines election, and those are the students who are going to represent the University of Alberta at the big conference. The results were, in most cases, very close, although Joe Jackson had an enormous majority in Medicine. The results indicate that all the leading organizations of the University will be represented: the Lit., the Athletic Society, The Gateway and the Students' Council.

The election was held on Saturday, but owing to the fact that the election in Law was tied, and that the ballot in Arts did not include the name of Mr. C. R. Patterson, a new election was declared in those faculties.

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT

The singing of the McDougall Choir, and an address by Dr. Tory on the "Khaki University," were the leading features of the opening program of the Literary Department Thursday evening.

After the program had been opened with the overture, "Calif of Bagdad," rendered by the University Orchestra, the McDougall Choir sang the first of their group of songs, "Imperial Anthem," which was well received by all, as were their other numbers.

"What Do You Think of That," sung by Miss Audrey Martin, and Mrs. Hartford's solo, both won hearty approval of the audience, but the palm went to Miss Reid's singing, which won her an encore.

The address by Dr. Tory, which came about the middle of the program, outlined the motivating idea of the Khaki University, which was the steering of college men back to their pre-war intellectual lines, in order that the dearth of intellectual people, caused by several years of war, could be ameliorated somewhat.

Dr. Tory went on to say that elementary education was one of the big problems, and battalion elementary schools were established as a result. College courses were given in British and Scotch colleges, and in camps throughout France, although there was no central camp there, such as the Americans formed in Southern France. Booklets were published to serve as texts, and altogether over 50,000 men took some definite work.

We were all delighted with the account of the Domestic Science course given to Canadian soldiers' wives and sweethearts. Dr. Tory said we need not be surprised to meet women graduates of the Khaki College here in Edmonton.

This educational movement spread to other armies, and the Australians, New Zealanders, English and Americans all had organizations, similar to the Khaki University, before the end of the war; and since then the British have voted £16,000,000 for those men whose education had been interfered with by the war.

On the conclusion of his address, Dr. Tory was applauded, and when, after the remainder of the program was completed, the audience left Convocation Hall, it was with the feeling that they had been present at one of the very best Lits in the history of the university.

ATHLETICS

THE CALGARY CANUCKS ARE ALBERTA'S 1919 RUGBY CHAMPIONS

'Varsity met the Southern Champions on Saturday last in as hard fought a game as Calgary has ever seen. They lost by the close score of 19-16.

Two unfortunate incidents of the game blasted 'Varsity's chances, which were otherwise as sure as could be wished for. In the first few minutes of play, a very unlucky fumble by A. Taylor resulted in 6 points for Calgary. Then in the last hard minutes of the struggle, with 'Varsity a few feet from the touch line with two "downs" to go, a one-foot off-side was called by an over-zealous official, and the ball was started in the wrong direction, while the fagged out Calgarians stalled and prayed for the whistle.

Our team had it over the Canucks in every department, except the luck, and no amount of skill or training can arrange that.

Of Calgary's score, 19, the major part was piled up by the two flukes in the early chapters. When it came right down to earning points, they were outclassed and played out by our vigorous tribe.

Langford—"Herr George,"—starred as usual with his cool, determined, even tempered style, while Fife, A. and R. Taylor, Palmer and Sampson loomed up brilliantly about him. The whole team played wonderful football, each man doing his part splendidly.

Considering the brief time they have been training together, the youth of the boys on the team, and the miserable weather they have struggled along in, this team has done remarkably well, and need feel no despair at having lost the title to a team as well organized, experienced and husky as the Calgary Canucks.

'Varsity rugby fans have every reason to be optimistic over the rugby outlook. For most of these men are in their junior year and will likely decorate our field for some seasons to come.

Next season's team, with these fellows and more "rooks" to choose from, will make up an aggregation that will be awfully, awfully hard to beat. Calgary's scalp won't be worth much to her next fall.

The teams lined up as follows:

Officials—Crowley and Dobson.

HOCKEY

Four clubs, interested in the formation of a Senior Hockey League in the city, met a week ago in the Y.M.C.A. A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution which will be submitted to the four clubs concerned for their approval. It is then hoped that a league will be formed and a schedule drawn up.

The coach, Mr. Dobson, intends to get all prospective players out in the gymnasium this week for a preliminary training before taking to the ice, which will be a matter of only a few days now. So if you have ever played hockey before, get out and try to catch a place on the first team.

'Varsity also attempted to enter a second team in the Commercial League, but in spite of vigorous protests, we were "canned" because we could lay no claim to being a commercial organization. An attempt to place a second team is still occupying our attention, since a good first team must have good second teams from which to replenish its ranks.

Replies to letters to Saskatoon and Winnipeg ensure us games with the Universities of Saskatchewan and Manitoba, although financial difficulties will probably prevent a game with the latter materializing.

BASKETBALL

This week sees the start of the House League, in a series which is to continue till Christmas. With so many unknown players, difficulty has been experienced in dividing them into teams of equal strength. Because of this it was decided to have another series after the holidays, for which the players will be re-arranged and probably divided into more teams. This should ensure some good games for the shield, which will go to the winners of the second series.

LAW STUDENTS

There are at present about sixty-five students-at-law in the city, exclusive of University Students, who are registered in combined Arts and Law, and who are still completing their Arts work, and who have not as yet articulated as students-at-law.

The lectures now being given to first, second and third year students are very well attended; in fact, the lecture room is, as a rule, filled to overflowing. We notice a number of students from the 'Varsity in attendance at the first year lectures.

Arrangements are now practically completed for the banquet to be given to the Law Students' Association, at the Macdonald on November 18th. This banquet is the first held since 1917, and is given in honor of members of the association who have graduated since that time. It is expected that there will be a large number present.

To date there have been no lectures in Private International Law, owing to the fact that Mr. Ford, who will lecture in this course, has been in Ottawa.

An effort is being made to arrange to have some of the lectures now being held at five o'clock, changed to a noon hour, one to one forty-five.

Possibilities of a Law Students' hockey team are considerably brighter, as many old hockeyists, some of whom formerly played with 'Varsity, have returned from overseas and are registered in law.

A special examination will be held, beginning November 24th, for students who have been overseas, and those who fell down in some subjects in the recent September exams. will have another opportunity.

The law students are quite naturally interested as to who will represent the Faculty of Law at the conference to be held at Des Moines in December.

EDITORIAL

One of the essentials to all successful business enterprise at the present day is advertising. We would suggest that all our Student Societies bear this in mind when preparing for any important event. It would appear that too often it is taken for granted that everybody knows all about the "big night" that has loomed so high on the horizon of the particular executive for some time past.

We are well provided with notice boards and understand further accommodation is being furnished in this regard. Also we have several first rate Sign Boys, the W.K. "Sunset" being particularly famous, so there is no excuse for anyone not being acquainted with every coming event a reasonable time before it takes place.

The students themselves are often to blame in this respect, however, that many of them seldom take the trouble to read the bulletin boards. May we offer this suggestion, therefore, that every society, that considers its functions worthy of interest to all students, see to it that a notice be posted in good time, and of such a type, that spectacles shall not be necessary to discern same. There will then be no excuse for any student pleading ignorance regarding such leading functions as Lit Nights, Dramatic Society, Debating Meetings, etc., etc.

We have been requested to mention the fact that certain professors are guilty of that unpardonable sin of trespassing on the seven minute interval allowed the students between each lecture period. This question is one which is regularly discussed in our columns at least once a year, and much more frequently in other circles. We trust the offenders will bear in mind that even the most studious of us enjoy a few minutes breathing space between lectures on a programme of three or four successive hours, especially with the temperature which now prevails in most of our class rooms. There are only a few who transgress, and we trust that they will consider the feelings of the poor sufferers, and give no further cause for complaint. We would also urge the students to play their part by being on time at all lectures and thus giving the professor the maximum time allotted.

Will all who send in contributions kindly attach their names, as we cannot guarantee publishing any article unless we know the author of same. Of course the name need not necessarily appear in the publication.

We have received, in exchange, The Ubysey, The Rebel, The Pennsylvanian, The McGill Daily, The Toronto Varsity, The Harvard Crimson. More are expected shortly. These copies are always available for inspection at the Gateway Office, Room 251, Arts.

A. L. CALDWELL GETS INTO PRINT AGAIN

The list of associate editors of The McGill Daily includes the name of a certain A. L. Caldwell, '21, and from the fact that Casual Clarence is saying things, and other articles which seem to smack of the old Gatevail of former days, we have come to the conclusion that Sandy Caldwell has found himself with great rapidity in his new university, and we will doubtless see much of his versatile pen this winter.

DEBATING SOCIETY

The hour between 5 and 6 p.m., on Thursday, November 6, was fully taken up by business and the forum. In the business part, a few rules regulating the forum were outlined, and although the discussion may have gone on further, it was cut short by the chairman, who called on Mr. C. Guerber.

At the beginning of his speech, Mr. Guerber outlined the difference between a few types of legislation. He then pointed out some of the defects in the federal and provincial methods of legislating in Canada, and contrasted this, with direct legislation, as it had been adopted in some of the states to the south.

After being complimented by President Dunham, some of his points were criticised by members, to all of whom he gave answers immediately. This method of answering each argument just after it was put forward, was subjected to criticism by a student on the ground that too much time was wasted. As a result a resolution was adopted, to the effect that the leader would answer all arguments at the close of the forum.

Captain Cameron of the Extension Department, who acted as critic, dwelt on the difficulty of the subject, comparing it to a tangled skein, the end of which is rather an elusive thing, when one attempts to take hold of it. While complimenting Mr. Guerber for the time he had evidently put upon the subject, he did not spare the audience which had failed to attack an evident defect in Mr. Guerber's speech. It was quite wholesome advice to listen to, and we hope that Captain Cameron, if he is good enough to be our critic again, will not find it in the future, so easy to catch us napping.

An affirmative vote in favor of a motion to adjourn was followed by the 'Varsity yell, when all hied off to satisfy the wants of their inner man.

Although the attendance was not all that could be desired, one can view it as a good starter. The debate on Thursday, November 13th, in which the teams of Jack Arkin, and Hugh John Macdonald will say diverse things about "Co-operative Trading," may bring a larger attendance.

ROBERTSON COLLEGE

An event which marks an epoch in the history of the college took place in Knox Church, Calgary, on Tuesday evening, October 28th, when Dr. J. M. Millar was formally inducted as principal in succession to Dr. Dyde, who is now principal of the Presbyterian College at Kingston, Ontario. Dr. Millar is a man of wide sympathy and deep spiritual vision, and we feel confident that under his efficient leadership this college will count for more than ever before in the life of Western Canada.

The students of the college who were members of the 11th Field Ambulance Corps, were entertained on Halloween at the home of Dr. (Capt.) Hurlburt, on Victoria Avenue. The occasion was to form a branch association of the veterans of this unit. It was decided to send letters of sympathy to the next-of-kin of those who perished on the battlefield. The evening passed very pleasantly in games and in exchanging reminiscences in the usual manner of old soldiers. After a vote of thanks had been passed to Dr. and Mrs. Hurlburt for their kindness in giving their house for this reunion, the meeting broke up at an advanced hour.

The Rev. N. D. MacDonald, M.A., B.D., of Killam, is visiting the college at present and renewing his acquaintance with the boys who have returned from overseas.

On the evening of the 7th, inst., the Rev. Dr. Buchanan, missionary to India, gave an interesting and instructive address to the students about his work among the hill tribes.

A course of study in Old Testament exegesis is highly recommended to students who are troubled with sleeplessness. A few days ago a student who cannot sleep at night was observed to be fast asleep in this class.

LITERARY GLEAMINGS

Many will regret to hear that Mr. Chadsey, who has hitherto been closely associated with the piano in the university functions, has now departed from this chair. We are equally sure that it is not through lack of ability, though his successor, Mr. Edwards, does sport the formula A.T.C.M., which, for the benefit of the uninitiated, of whom we were one, means Associate Toronto Conservatory of Music. Say it quickly and no one will be able to say whether you are wrong or not.

Miss Robb, the conductor, promises something new for the university. This is a repertoire which is, so far as we can gather, in the nature of a program consisting of overtures and selections.

It is whispered that the devotees of the Muse of Music pay tribute to more than one goddess at their gatherings. The same whisper mentions Terpsichore as the lady in question. We wished that we were musicians when we heard this.

And while speaking of side issues, we'll say that the persons who evolved the idea of having tea at the end of their meetings, sort of sprung one on the athletic clubs. Eh!

The ladies of our institution, it seems, have not yet responded to the call of the Glee Club in sufficient numbers to satisfy the executive. Those who have responded feel somewhat shy amongst the large number of males. Too bad! What is worse, is that Mr. Barford has no pity on them, with the result that some few even lost the use of their voices after their first few strenuous practises. But, best of all, is the improvement that is being made, for hoarseness is not a staying quality.

ALBERTA COLLEGE

Scattered as we are, all over the campus, the college spirit at A.C. is very much alive, and several students are seen to be making the most of their college opportunities, according to the curriculum and otherwise.

The first meeting of the Choral Society was held on Saturday at five o'clock, and we express our sympathy with Mr. Putland, over the strenuous work ahead of him in bringing order out of chaos. The management of the owners of soprano and alto voices alone is a task for a man of great gifts and ability, but we have confidence in our leader.

Both the vesper services and the Sunday service at nine o'clock, are well attended, and helpful to all. May we mention that the after-meetings are very effectual. Everybody is asked to come to the Sunday Evening Sing Song, with "Don" at the piano. There is lots of pep in the music, and an enjoyable hour may be spent.

Mr. Joe Kirk has been elected to attend the Des Moines Conference. We know Joe will attend all the sessions, as his heart will be with his friends in Edmonton. Bro. Staley was appointed convenor of the group to attend the Boy Leaders' Conference. His gifts as a leader are well known, as he has often led us up town.

Someone has suggested that we advertise for the following articles for use in A.C.: Pair of warm socks for A. C. Francis, a soft pedal for the chin music at table No. 2, a mute for a fog horn on the first floor, a pair of high heeled shoes for Musto, a check-rein for Bro. Staley, a lady friend for Mr. Laycock and contracts to have the sidewalks cleaned off between Pembina and Assiniboia.

As they say in military circles, we much regret that no communication by phone has yet been established at Assiniboia, so despatches will be sent to Pembina by runners until better accomodation is made.

It was casually remarked to us when the results of the matriculation tests were posted in the library, that the average standing of any young lady varies in inverse ratio as her efforts to ensnare the guileless youths of our student body.

Inspired by the War Special of the Gateway, some would-be wag placed the following on our notice-board.

War Office, London, Nov. 9th, 0800 hours.

It is stated in official circles that the forces of A.C. made a successful raid on the Pembina Salient last night. Several prisoners were carried off and taken under escort to a P.O.W. camp on the north side of the river. Several parties were exposed to heavy shell fire as they conducted their prisoners down the Menin Road towards the Y.M.C.A. hut(?). A private of the Matric. Battalion of Death, and a sergeant of the Theolog Battalion of Mercy, were last seen beating a hasty retreat before the Pembina forces with the prisoners towards the Allen Prison Encampment.

Lieut. Francis did not participate in last night's raid, owing to cold feet, as the usual quantity of socks did not come up with the rations.

(Sgd.) P. Gibbs.

Passes have been issued to some of our theologs for the engagement in Athabasca on Tuesday, 11th, but the majority, not having yet received sufficient training, will only be able to see the early drafts leaving for the front line, and will not themselves be called in action as yet.

And as "E.J." was heard to quote from Shakespeare, before leaving his room one evening, "Lead on Macbeth...."

THE MANDOLIN CLUB

Friday, November 7, at 5 o'clock, saw the organization of a club, which has, by custom, become inseparable from University life, by name, that club is the Mandolin Club.

The meeting was not very well attended, but was marked with great enthusiasm. F. H. Buckley will fill the position of president, and will be assisted by E. W. Davis, as secretary-treasurer.

The leader will be Mr. Luck, who has had a great deal of experience in the Mandolin Club at Toronto. All those interested may gain further information from Buckley, Davis or Budd.

Y.M.C.A. NOTES

A Boys' Leadership Conference, lasting from 2 p.m. on Saturday, November 15th, to the following Tuesday, is to be held in the First Baptist Church, Edmonton. This conference will be of real importance to every student who is interested in the Leadership of Boys. The sessions of the conference would not interfere in any way with attendance on classes, so that any one who wishes can avail himself of this opportunity of learning how to organize and how to lead boys' groups. It is suggested that a number of students organize into Tuxis Squares and attend the conference as organized groups. In this way they would receive the full benefit of the instruction given. For further particulars see any of the Y.M.C.A. men.

Next Sunday we are to have the privilege of hearing one of the best preachers in Alberta at the University Service in Convocation Hall. Rev. J. McCartney Wilson comes to us from Calgary. He has been here before and all who have heard him are agreed that he is well worth hearing.

The Social Service work of the Y.M.C.A. is beginning to take shape, under the able leadership of Charlie Young of Robertson College. He is badly in need of volunteer workers who will undertake to teach English to foreigners (or coming Canadians, as they are called) or to act as leaders of Boys' Groups. Other opportunities of service are opening up to volunteers.

A survey of the non-resident students is contemplated. The idea is to discover how many of the students are linked up in any way with the churches.

The membership campaign is in full swing. It is clear, from the numbers who have joined the "Y" already, that we are going to have double the number of active members of any previous year.

CLASS '21

The Junior Year has organized, and is already making plans, which seem to indicate that the Class of '21 is not to be outdone by any of its predecessors.

At a meeting, held on November 5th, the executive for the year, was chosen.

President—Whitney Matthews.

Vice-President—Miss Avis Hibbard.

Treasurer—Ted Davis.

Secretary—Miss Mabel Giles.

Committee—Miss Jessie Hamilton, Emsley Gardner, Whitney Banks, Edward Hollies.

Already the executive is busy, making extensive plans for the Junior Prom., to be held on November 28th, which promises to be one of the big events of the year. As yet not many of the details have been decided, although we are assured that the best orchestra in town, and all its accompanying attractions, will be there. The Juniors, one and all, are at work, and nothing is being left undone, to make Nov. 28th, one of the most enjoyable functions of the "Varsity" year. Watch the Gateway for further information.
